

PRIVACY and SECURITY

1. Privacy:

Incredible Images does not collect information that personally identifies individuals.

Incredible Images does reserve the right, however, to perform statistical analyses of user behaviour and characteristics, in order to measure use of the various sections of this site so as to improve design and navigation. Only aggregated data from these analyses, not individual data, will be used for this purpose. So, certain non-personal information and data may be automatically collected by this website through the operation of what are called "cookies". "Cookies" are small text files that identify an individual computer's browser entering a web site. They allow the site to track that browser's movement through the site over several sessions. Through cookies, a website can:

- recognize repeat users,
- facilitate the user's access to and use of the site and
- allow a site to track usage behaviour that will allow content and/or organizational improvements.

Users should be aware that if you do not want a cookie placed on your computer by Incredible Images, you may disable cookies altogether by modifying the Preferences section of your Netscape or Internet Explorer browser (under Edit/Preferences/Advanced). If you have no problem accepting cookies, but wish to be informed of their appearance, you may turn on a warning prompt by modifying the cookie warning section in Edit/Preferences/Advanced.

2. Security:

The information contained in Incredible Images webpages could contain technical inaccuracies or typographical errors. We reserve the right to make improvements and or changes to any information contained within our web pages at any time and without notice.

There is no "spam" on this website.

This webmaster has not included harmful code on this website.
